John Wega

Executive Director and Founder
U.S. Christian Commission Museum, Inc.

John Wega and his wife Susan are the parents of four children and the founders of the U.S. Christian Commission Civil War Museum in Gettysburg, Pennsylvania. Active in the Gettysburg area business community, John and Susan opened this past November a new museum and coffee shop in downtown Gettysburg called Johnny Como's.

John grew up in the Washington, D.C. area and has a very diverse background. From attending the U.S. Coast Guard Academy in New London, CT to achieving amateur national bodybuilding honors, his life may be characterized as "All-American". His career in the bio-tech field has provided him the opportunity to work in such places as NIH, Ft. Detrick, Harvard, pharmaceutical companies and hospitals around the country. From the high-tech world of biotechnology to starting the first Civil War museum in the country of its type, John's background is truly unique. His story is one that will challenge you in your life today.
