

Pride Before the Fall

Matthew has been active in the community of York for the past 7 years working to improve what he sees as a lack of involvement and vision. He loves to collaborate with other Christian founded organizations in the area and believes that God has brought him to York for His purpose.

As a part of his talk, Matt will share how God moved him from pride to a greater passion.

Matthew lives in the York area with his wife Doreen. He has a son Brian who resides in Harrisburg, PA and a son Daron who resides in York, PA.

LUNCHEON

York CBMC presents:

Matthew Carey

Chief Executive Officer (CEO)

LifePath Christian Ministries

Matthew Carey is the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of, LifePath Christian Ministries, formerly known as the York Rescue Mission. Matthew is a graduate of the University of Pittsburgh. Prior to coming to LifePath Christian Ministries, Matthew spent a number of years working for then Governor of the Commonwealth Tom Ridge receiving the Governors "Breaking Through Barriers" award for his dedicated and passionate work on contract reform and streamlining the procurement process. Matthew then decided to pursue his next chapter in his life and went on to develop a very strong business practice in the area of IT consulting services throughout the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and Federal Government

Come and bring a friend!

Tuesday—March 28, 2017

11:30 am Registration

Lunch and Program 12 noon– 1 pm

Four Points Sheraton, York, PA

US Route 30 at I-83

Cost $15

Register and Pay at <http://centralpa.cbmc.com>

or by emailing Steve Parthree at steve@onewayjanitorial.com

