Ron Hostetler will speak about

“Better Men, Better World: Mind Your Luggage”

Ron Hostetler, M.Ed is an author, artisan, and corporate and conference speaker working in the education, training, and personal development industry. He has spoken to diverse business, church, and non-profit organizations in the areas of personal leadership, teamwork, life balance, peak performance, fatherhood, and marriage and family life. He is also the creator of The Rugged Spirit Collection: a series of home and office displays merging aged woods and vintage tools that capture the story of design and destination. Ron was a three-year starter, captain, All East and preseason All-American linebacker at Penn State and a draft pick of the Los Angeles Rams. He was a Congressional Candidate, former President of the Derry Township School Board, and founder of a non-profit organization dedicated to strengthening families.
