Your Christian Presence in the Workplace!

Dr. Don Snider is a retired Army Colonel who served our nation for over five decades as both a soldier and a scholar. His military service includes three combat tours as an infantry officer in Vietnam, decorated for both valor and wounds. As a scholar, he returned to West Point to serve on the faculty. Subsequently, he joined the faculty at the Army War College. He is the recipient of an award from the International Society for Military Ethics for his contribution to the field of military ethics.
